

Advice and support

This page tells you about H&SA's free advice service for people with learning disabilities, families and members.

The Housing & Support Alliance runs an advice service Monday-Friday, 9am-4pm.

Telephone: 0845 456 1497

Email: enquiries@housingandsupport.org.uk

This service is free to people with learning disabilities, families and members.

We can help with most things about housing, support and rights for people with learning disabilities, including:

- supported living and supported housing
- home ownership options
- renting privately
- family investment in housing
- extra care
- funding for housing
- support options
- welfare benefits
- rights to housing and support
- tenancies
- mental capacity.

If we can't help you with something straightaway, we will get a specialist advisor to contact you as soon as possible.

Advice and support

This page tells you about H&SA's free advice service for people with learning disabilities, families and members.

The Housing & Support Alliance runs an advice service Monday-Friday, 9am-4pm.

Telephone: 0845 456 1497

Email: enquiries@housingandsupport.org.uk

This service is free to people with learning disabilities, families and members.

We can help with most things about housing, support and rights for people with learning disabilities, including:

- supported living and supported housing
- home ownership options
- renting privately
- family investment in housing
- extra care
- funding for housing
- support options
- welfare benefits
- rights to housing and support
- tenancies
- mental capacity.

If we can't help you with something straightaway, we will get a specialist advisor to contact you as soon as possible.

